

The Case of the Missing Jellycats

An adventure in Thailand

Blossom

Pip

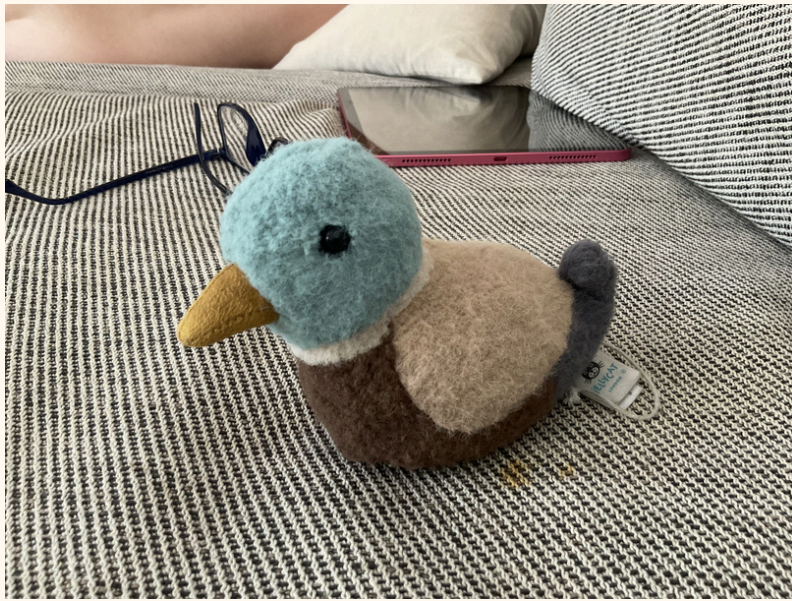

Coral

Once upon a time In the world of jelly cats that was a dog called Coco and another dog called Lily

they were best friends but all of a sudden Random jelly cats started
going missing
done, done
doneeeeee.

they need to solve this problem so they were coming up with a way to find the culprit,

there were two plans plan a And plan b

plan a is investigate for clues where they went missing

plan b build a shield to protect the remaining ones.
first

They tried plan a it didn't work out.(because they didn't know where they last went missing) they tried Plan B they knew this would work.they had to tiny paws to build.

. One more try, let's come up with one last plan Lily said. Plan C we'll find the rarest jelly cat, but it's fake so the person who is stealing all these jelly cats steal the fake jelly cat and drop all the rest yay said Lily we'll get our friends back so they made a giant jelly cat, but it's actually fake

so they googled where they were last seen
they put it where they last saw them

And now they waited they came back the next day and there was a human done done done

Eeeeeeee

We took our friends
And then we finally vanished the human from our World.

The end
Hope you like my story,
